

Hit the ground running in 2020

Happy New Year to one and all – we hope you had a fabulous Christmas and well-deserved break with family and friends. The 12th day of Christmas is Sunday 5th January, so hopefully you have cleared away the tinsel and vacuumed pine needles from your floors – and are optimistically looking forward to a prosperous and thriving new decade!

If you are ready to hit the ground running and get your business off to a head start – next Sunday (12th January) is your first important calendar event of 2020 – Harrogate Christmas & Gift! If you are receiving this news – then you are already registered to visit the show – but if you have new industry friends or colleagues who may not have attended the UK's favourite trade event before, be sure to share this link. This is a not-to-be-missed show, with everything you could possibly desire to get your customers fired up and spending not just for Christmas 2020 – but for every celebration that next year has to offer.

Naturally inspired

Products with a natural, 'crafty' look are a growing trend and Joe Davies has some fantastic new designs to make the most of this launching at the show.

The Christmas Birch collection of décor pieces is one such addition. The range consists of beautifully hand-crafted snowmen figures and scenes with exquisite details to really enhance the look. Retail price points start at just £3.99 and all products are available in their trademark 'little & often' quantities with carriage paid orders of just £100 and with deliveries as per your requirements. With over 1000+ on trend gift and home décor items on display and the best customer service in the trade (17 times Progressive Gifts Greats Award winners) Joe Davies should be on every buyer's must visit list.
